

NEWS RELEASE

New Vice Principal Named to Pope Francis Elementary School

August 24, 2020

The Northeastern Catholic District School Board is pleased to welcome Sean Robertson as the new Vice Principal at Pope Francis Elementary School. Mr. Robertson brings a vast set of skills and educational experiences over the past decade to this role.

Mr. Robertson commented, "Schools are at the heart of our communities. As institutions, schools serve the needs of students and their families in striving to maximize potential. These relationships are built on trust and the belief that schools are equipped to meet the diverse needs of learners. This is no small feat and it is the role of the a vice-principal, as a member of the administration team, to foster a positive school atmosphere that ensures a sense of school spirit, but also an orderly climate based in empathy and understanding that inspires distinction, confidence and pride."

Darren Berthier, Principal at Pope Francis Elementary School stated, "Mr. Robertson will be a welcome addition to this wonderful school community. His passion to inspire a community, his love for learning and his faith, will only compliment the amazing things that are going on at Pope Francis Elementary School."

Mr. Robertson is highly qualified, currently working on this Doctor of Education through the University of Western Ontario. He and his family are active members of St. Joachim Parish; where is also an active member of the Knights of Columbus Council.

Both the Northeastern Catholic District School Board and the Pope Francis Elementary School family welcomes Mr. Robertson in his new role as Vice Principal.

Catholic Education Makes the Difference!

For more information, please contact: Andrew Marks, Community Relations Officer at (705) 268-7443 ext. 3213